

CEB - Confédération Européenne de Baseball (historical)

On 1953, Apr 27-29, the representatives of national associations from BEL, ESP, FRA, FRG and ITA had founded the Fédération Européenne de Baseball (FEB) at a meeting in Paris.

With the withdrawal of the Italian and Dutch association on 1967, Apr 15 (which founded the Fédération Amateur Baseball immediately) the European Association endured its first crisis. But already at the congress on 1969, Apr 12, the reunification of all European associations took place under the umbrella of FEB.

In the following years the federation changed its name twice:

At the congress in Marseille on 1972, Mar 11 into Confédération Européenne de Baseball Amateur (CEBA)

On 1994, Feb 05 the term "Amateur" was deleted from the statutes and consequently the federation's name was changed to Confédération Européenne de Baseball (CEB).

After establishing the WBSA Europe the official dissolution of the CEB was on 2022, Feb 12.
