

LEN Europa Cup - Men (defunct)

After a preliminary stage, the top teams qualified for the Super Final. Since 2019, the Europa Cup is the European qualification to the FINA World League.

		Winners	Final	Runners-up	Third place
2018, Apr 05 - 08	Rijeka CRO	CRO	12:9	ESP	ITA
2019, Apr 05 - 07	Zagreb CRO	HUN	10:8	CRO	ESP

LEN Europa Cup - Women (defunct)

After a preliminary stage, the top teams qualified for the Super Final. Since 2019, the Europa Cup is the European qualification to the FINA World League.

		Winners	Final	Runners-up	Third place
2018, Mar 22 - 24	Pontevedra ESP	GRE	9:8	RUS	ESP
2019, Mar 29 - 31	Torino ITA	NED	11:9	RUS	HUN

Count Klebelsberg Cup (historical)

From 1929 onwards the Count Klebelsberg Cup (named after the founder Count Kunó Klebelsberg) was played in the round robin between the top six European water polo nations (of the preceding Olympic Games and the European Championships respectively). After the third Hungarian victory in succession, the trophy became its definitive possession. The Hungarian President Miklós Horthy donated a new trophy: the Horthy Cup.

		Winners	Runners-up	Third place
1929, Aug 14 - 21	Budapest HUN	HUN	SWE	GER
1930, Aug 25 - 31	Nürnberg GER	HUN	GER	BEL
1935, Aug 25 - 31	Bruxelles BEL	HUN	BEL	GER
1937, Aug 14 - 20	Budapest HUN	HUN	GER	BEL
1939, Jul 29 - Aug 04	Doetinchem NED	GER	HUN	ITA

International Swimming Cup (historical)

In 1990, the LEN organized an International Swimming Cup, which included a men's water polo tournament.

		Winners	Final	Runners-up	Third place
1990, Aug 09 - 12	Roma ITA	YUG	9:7	ITA	HUN

Euro-League - Men (historical)

After a preliminary round in two groups of four, the top two teams of each group qualified for the Final Four.

		Winners	Final	Runners-up	Third place
2000, Dec 02 - 03	Zagreb CRO	HUN	11:8	CRO	YUG